

Directions to the West Loading Lock of the Indiana State Museum

The West Loading Dock is attached to the Indiana State Museum's Administrative Building (not the Museum Building that faces Washington St.).

Directions:

- Depending on which highway is used take the appropriate exit to West St. (Please note that parts of I-65 and I-70 are under construction this summer and may cause delays.)
- From West St., turn west onto W. New York St.
- Turn south (left) onto Blackford St.
- Turn right (west) onto Wabash St.
- West Loading Dock is in red brick and limestone building on the left.
- Go through the door at left marked "Indiana State Museum" and check in at the security desk or with the Hoosier Art Salon representative.
